What to do: If you are thinking about having a wedding in the Seven Saints Parish, or need to have your Banns read in the Parish, Ring Rev Jane Greenhalgh on 775269. She will advise you on how to proceed, complete the necessary paper work and keep you informed. We value the opportunity to help you plan your wedding and put our pastoral experience at your service.

When to pay: If you decide to book a wedding, we require you to pay the £29.00 Reading of Banns fee when you book (cheques payable to Seven Saints PCC). The balance will need to be paid a fortnight before the rehearsal for the wedding. The rehearsal is arranged at your convenience, usually a week or so before the day. Similarly, if you need your Banns to be read in this parish, and certificate issued, we require you to pay the £43.00 fee when you book.

Video: If you wish to video record the service you must obtain a licence, evidence of which needs to be brought to the rehearsal. Please ask for the necessary information pack.

Note: If one of the parties to the marriage lives outside the Seven Saints Team, you will need to have Banns read at that person's Parish Church within three months of the date of the wedding. This is something you need to arrange with that Parish. You will then be given a Banns Certificate, which is required before the marriage can take place here. A fee of £43.00 is payable to that Parish for publishing the banns and issuing the Banns Certificate.

The fees are revised in January each year by the Church of England.
